A Large Andlenes Attends the Exercises of the Fifty-Third Anniversary.

The Sifty-Inited anniversary of the Maile Orohan Asylom was celebrated at that institution on Sunday aftermoon. Heretofore the exercises on that day have been head in one of the churches of the city of Richmond, but Mrz. J. R. Gill, the faithful superintendent, thought this year to deviate from that custom so that those who attended the observance of the day might at the same time be given an opportunity of taking a look at the building and its sourcoundings. There being no charel at the orphin asylum, the exercises were held in the big reception room, which was handsomely decirated for the occasion. The place was crowded to its utmost capacity when Mrz. Gill took her sent at the organ shortly after a o'clock in the afternoon, and among those present were all the members of the Board of Directors, with the exception of Mesars, John S. Ellett and W. H. Pleasanis.

The entertainment opened with the song, "Frees On," by the orphan boys and Rev. I. M. Mercer, of West View Baptist church. Captain Frank W. Canpingham then same a solo, "Let Us Gather Up the Sunbeams." Dr. W. W. Parker, the president of the institution, next read his annual roport, which showed that on June 1, 1856, there were in the asylum 55 boys; during the year 14 were admitted, so that the maximum number of inmates at one time was 69. The number of boys returned to their friends was Boesn't Like Sensationalism.

In the course of an excellent sermon Sunday night on the Cross of Christ, Rev. W. B. Beauchamp said that sensationalism was the same whether on the stage or in the pulpit; it only excited the curiosity of the people without inculating a moral or leaving an impression for good. The province of the pulpit was to preach Christ and Him crucifed; and, despite the tendency, continued the speakey, to sensationalism in the pulpit, "I thank God that St. Paul, the grandest of preachers, preached nothing but Christ, and that Charles H. Spurgeon, whom I consider the greatest minister of midden times, preached Christ and Him only as the true source of consolation in trouble and salvation from sin."

A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

There is another question which has been more or less a subject of speculation, and that is, will the Democratic Convention endorse the plan of holding a Constitutional Convention?

From all appearances, this question will hardly be fought out in the convention, as it is so purely a matter of State concept and this convention is called for the explicit and express purpose of electing
